

The process of Church closure (Camusterach) and the associated transfer of chairs amongst other points is all now with the Trustees of the Church of Scotland for their consideration. I can't think that there will be any issue with this, particularly since we are using the chairs as part of the contribution towards rent, but it does take time!