

Helipad Update

We hope to start on the Helipad construction late February/early March. The cost of stone from Kishorn became increasingly expensive but fortunately the Trust have made quarrying available on their land: machines and wagons are on standby. We are grateful for their kind offer.