

Helipad

The construction of the pad is finished and we await further grass growth. Mike Summers, with the use of the Trust mower, has kindly offered to look after the grass for us.

We have had 3 extractions to date and have received glowing reports from both the pilots and paramedics.

We await development progress with our illuminated windsock and landing lights. We are grateful to both the Trust and Milton crofters for their ongoing support.

Christopher Ward
16 August 2021